FISCAL IMPACT STATEMENT

LS 6441

BILL NUMBER: HB 1059

NOTE PREPARED: Mar 20, 2007

BILL AMENDED: Mar 12, 2007

SUBJECT: Holocaust Education.

FIRST AUTHOR: Rep. Kersey

FIRST SPONSOR: Sen. Lubbers

BILL STATUS: As Passed Senate

FUNDS AFFECTED: X GENERAL DEDICATED FEDERAL

IMPACT: State & Local

Summary of Legislation: (Amended) The bill beginning with the 2007-2008 school year, requires each school corporation to include a study of the Holocaust in each high school United States history course.

Effective Date: July 1, 2007.

Explanation of State Expenditures: Summary: The Department of Education would be able to enter the Holocaust into the United States history curriculum within existing staff resources. The Department currently has various links to Holocaust studies on their Office of Program Management website.

Background- Department of Education: As of December 2006, the Department employed two social studies consultants. The Department reverted $3.3 M to the state General Fund at the close of FY 2006.

Department of Education Standards: The Department's history standards investigate conflicts, challenges, and controversies from 1900 to the present day. Standard 10.3 makes specific reference to "acts of oppression, including extermination by Nazis...against particular inhabitants."

Additionally, Standard 10.4 requires students to: "trace and explain the antecedents, causes, major events, and global consequences of World War II, including the Holocaust."

Explanation of State Revenues:

Explanation of Local Expenditures: Summary: Schools may have to supplement their existing United States history textbooks if Holocaust education is not included in the current textbooks. Textbook supplements would require additional expenditures. The impact of this provision on school expenditures would depend on local school action but should be minimal.

Background- Schools purchase textbooks by subject on a six-year cycle. Social studies textbooks were last purchased in 2004, and are not scheduled for replacement until 2010.

Explanation of Local Revenues:

State Agencies Affected: Department of Education.

Local Agencies Affected: School Corporations.
